CRUISE WITH KRAB
[details inside]

THIS MONTH'S COVER:

On Saturday nite, September 23rd, Krab and the Virginia V Foundation will sponsor a benefit cruise aboard the Virginia V, featuring music by the Tall Timber String Band. Performing in Tall Timber are champion fiddler Vivian Williams, along with Phil Williams, Barney Munger, Dick Marvin and Lou Harrington.

The Virginia V is the oldest operating passenger steamer west of the Mississippi River. Built in 1922, she recently has undergone substantial restoration, financed in part by a grant in recognition of her status as a "place" of historical significance.

Tickets for the benefit are $5 each, and may be purchased in advance at the Folkstore (5238 University Way NE), or by mail by writing: Benefit, The Virginia V Foundation, 4250 21st W Seattle, 98199. Tickets remaining will be sold at the dock prior to the 8pm departure.

You'll find the Virginia V moored just west of Salmon Bay Fisherman's Terminal, at 4250 21st W. Our favorite 3.2 beverage will be served, along with something even softer for those so choosing.

All aboard!

It's been a long cool summer for KRAB...the hot summer days have kept people away from their radios and their wallets.....but, it costs KRAB just as much to survive in the summer as the rest of the year. As our loyal supporters, we ask that you help us get through until the marathon next month.

If you have just two friends that will subscribe, we could cover basic operating costs for this month.

If you don't want to ask people for money, but think some friends might be interested, send us their names and addresses and we'll do the dirty work.

DEAR KRAB: Here are some friends that might be able to support uncensored, public access radio.

The KRAB Repertory gets into motion this month with a production of Paul Foster's Balls, on Tues., Sept. 26, at 9:00pm. Additional people are becoming involved in presentations such as Men In Exile, a dramatization of works by inmates at Oregon State Penitentiary. Other plays are being cast, rehearsals being set, and new people being auditioned. If you think you can contribute to the diversity of spoken word programming on the radio, call 325-5110 and ask for Glenn Weiss or the Program Director.

Beginning this month, the Bop Stop begins a many-part series entitled Parkermania. The programs will feature Charlie Parker's recorded works on three major labels: Dial, Savoy and Verve. Included are all the unissued "alternate takes." - For Bird Freaks (mostly). Bop Stop can be heard on alternate Tuesdays from 7:30 to 9:00 pm.

Thanks to all of you for supporting KRAB with your subscriptions. Subscriptions pay for the station operating costs as well as the monthly guide. In order to stay afloat, we need at least 450 new subscribers each month.

We have created various categories of FRIENDS and we ask that you support KRAB to the extent that you can, and look among your friends and associates who may be in a position to contribute more. With your support, we will be able to survive these critical times and continue to provide the community with its only public access, non-commercial station.

REMEMBER, ALL CONTRIBUTIONS ARE TAX DEDUCTIBLE

A FRIEND	$25
STUDENT OR SENIOR FRIEND	$15
CANADIAN FRIEND (U.S. rate of exchange)	$30
A GOOD FRIEND	$50

8:00 "HOMER" OF THE INSECTS
Darwin described the famous entomologist J. Henri Fabre as a philosopher who wrote like a poet as he poked into the private lives of insects and revealed what he saw in quaint, curious, happy and tragic stories. Kay Hutchins reads from his works about the mantis, the crab spider, and the last moult of the locust.

9:30 WHERE DID I HEAR THAT?
The concept of figure and ground is a familiar one in visual art; the phenomenal developments in the recording industry have helped make it an everyday event in music. Examples here will range from Baroque sonatas with continuo accompaniment to jazz solos with rhythm back-up. Also included will be such modern examples of acoustic perspectives as Sonic Landscape #3 by Barry Truax, for live performers and tapes; recent trends in disco; vocal pieces by Robert Ashley and Patti Smith and even some negative examples -- the steady-state music of Philip Glass, Lamont Young and others. Produced by Adam Woog.
